CHEERS TO DOWNTOWN CANTON

Jackie Woodring, Director of Marketing and Events for the Canton Regional Chamber of Commerce, is busy all year organizing events for the streets of downtown Canton. This summer, she and her staff organized happenings such as Zing in the City and the Canton Blues Festival. Then, on September 21, wine tasters gathered along Market Avenue for the annual Vintage Canton evening. Speciality wines for tasting and hors' d'oeuvres for sampling were featured in a casual, yet elegant street fair. "The event was a huge success," said Woodring. "The weather cooperated, and I was ecstatic with the turnout."

Jackie said that for all their events, she partners with Canton Chair Rental to make sure everything goes off without a hitch. "Tim Maloney's organization is top-notch," she said. "His equipment is always in perfect condition. Here's an example. We need to rent a lot of linens for an event as large as Vintage Canton. Every piece is immaculate. What's more is that each piece comes with a label on it saying what it is and where it goes. It is so organized when it arrives. This is extremely helpful for the volunteers who help set up."

Jackie said everyone from Canton Chair Rental is unflappable. "With all the details they need to keep straight, I've never once seen anyone get their feathers ruffled. They are extremely professional and always calm and in control."

Part of this, Woodring believes, stems from Tim Maloney who has set this tone for the company. "Tim is always so approachable. He is always willing to help with anything. I've seen him jump in and work on things that weren't even his own equipment. He's that kind of guy."

The next big event is Light Up Downtown on December 7. Plan to attend this spectacular holiday family event.

Sanese Services is More than Sandwiches

When Canton area natives hear the word "Sanese," they probably think about the great local company that is known for mailing prepared foods for vending machines. However, Sanese Services is known throughout the Midwest as an excellent food provider to corporations, establishments, and industrial organizations.

Sanese Services is also a caterer for the Hall of Fame events that are inside the Civic Center. From the Fashion Show Luncheon to the Enshrinees Civic Dinner, to the Game Day Luncheon, Sanese is front and center providing great food during football's greatest weekend. Craig Rohr, general manager, said that Sanese depends on Canton Chair Rental heavily during Hall of Fame weekend.

"We have quite a bit of our equipment, but when we are serving the thousands that we do during Hall of Fame time, we rely on Canton Chair Rental for their china, glassware, and flatware. They also provide us with the tents we use to work under, in the back of the Civic Center.

"We have always found Canton Chair Rental to be very responsive. They are excellent to work with and they have good quality products. We also work together throughout the year. We work on the American Red Cross Mash Bash fund raiser, weddings, and many other events."

Helpful Tips for Holiday Entertaining

- Y Plan on approximately 2 drinks per person per hour. A 750ml bottle will yield 17 shots of liquor or 5 glasses of wine.
- Y Have plenty of ice on hand. You will need it for chilling bottles of wine or champagne as well as serving in drinks. Plan to have at least one pound of ice per guest.
- Y Guests tend to mislay their glasses. So have plenty to spare. Allowing 4 to 5 glasses per person is a good rule of thumb.
- Y You can never have too many napkins. Always plan on having extras on hand.
- Y Buy a red wine such as Pinot Noir and a white one such as Sauvignon Blanc that are good, but will not over power the food you're serving. Consult with a wine specialist regarding brands and vintages.
- Y Open about half of the wine bottles beforehand and then reinsert the corks partway. You won't have to struggle to keep the wine flowing, and guests can easily uncork bottles when you're busy.
- Y You will need three bottles of mix for every bottle of spirits, plus some mix for non-drinkers.
- Y When serving hors d'oeuvres - plan on 4 to 6 appetizers per person per hour at cocktail parties preceding a dinner. For parties where a dinner will not be served, plan on 8 to 10 appetizers per person for every 60 to 90 minutes of the party.
